UP!

UP! is an ideal solution for every child's room. The cot with a small cabinet, changer, drawer (option) and shelves is a piece of furniture which changes with your child and adjusts to their needs. For the infant, it is a great safe space to sleep, play and rest in, whereas for the parent - a functional space for storing all things necessary for baby care. When your child grows older, it can be easily and quickly turned into a larger bed (160 cm), adding a small desk to it with an adjusted top and space for your child's treasures. Thanks to such options, it is a great solution for all those who want to enjoy a neat and functional solution for many years to come.

Hoppa

Children's room should be cosy, safe and light. The furniture that will accompany the child during the first years of his or her life not only has to be functional, but also fit for the growing demand of the small user and its parents requirements. In order to meet these expectations, a new collection of children's furniture - HOPPA - has been created.

Nomi

The line was inspired by two shapes: circle and triangle, because when we think of the triangle, the most important thing to us all comes to mind - home, a hiding place, safe haven. The circle, on the other hand, is one the very first shapes a little person is able to draw and brings associations of an open window to a new world and a new adventure.

Pinette

We are aware of the fact that except for a good design a practical aspect of furniture is also a very important element. These factors make it possible for a young man to develop and build up their independence. For an infant the cot will be a friendly place to sleep, for a small explorer – a strategic place to rest and play.

Good Night

The Good Night bed is a practical combination of elegance and a classical style. A chic design especially for demanding parents so that the child can use it for a long time. Bed slats are decorated with stylish relief-milled decoration; on the headrest, there is a chic decorative element, which can be filled with a Good Night inscription or replaced with the child's name. With appropriate styling additions, the child will look great in the room of small boy and a girl.

TeePee

An ideal bed for older kids. Thanks to its shape, inspired by the Indian tent, teepee, each young man will feel like an explorer, brave warrior or will simply hide from the whole world. The shape is universal and timeless enough to perfectly match furniture off other collections. The bed with a wooden roof can be arranged in various ways. It may become a tent, ship or a precarious cave, if required.

The shape and implemented solutions inspire creativity and encourage your child to play, at the same time making it easier to keep toys in order. The inspiration with residential buildings will allow the furniture to be used for scenes staged by your child, whereas the white colour of the fronts combined with the natural shade of oak will be an ideal background for all your child's games.
